What the Courier Would Like to Know.
If Sheriff Owen means business?
If George Elliott knows which is the parlor to the Chariton House?

What Fred Veach's views are on the "best way to sow pop corn"?

Why the Salisbury young man doesn't pay for the pictures?

Why "the man" wouldn't let Jim mie come in?

Who the young lady was that fell over the fence last Saturday night?

How Herbert enjoyed having his fortunes told?

If George Dewey thinks he would make a good musician?

What kind of cake Miss Ella got at Triplet's?

Which Senator Mackay likes best, blonde or brunette?

If the young lady who wore white kids' Sunday night really means it?

If Cousin Sam is really as badly broken up as he says he is?

Why Mr. Vaughan goes to the post-office five times a day?

If Cousin Sam thinks of locating in Salisbury?

If the crazy hat mark will interfere with the crazy quilt?

If any of the Triplet boys have the heartache?

If Zilhart is satisfied with the show this week?

If Dick isn't the juckiest fellow that goes to shows?

If the Keytesville girls don't take the "bakery" for good looks?

If the young lady who met with a big loss at the leap year party, has found it yet?

Who that "special friend" of Senator Mackay's is to whom he sent a box of fowls?

How many postal cards have been received by three certain young ladies from the Salisbury artist?

If two men dig coal three days, and lose five cents on the three day's work, how long will they have to work to get even?

Keytesville has had no shows since the fair until within the last two weeks. Some kind of an entertainment has been held at the hall almost every night. We are glad to hear of the improved behavior of some of the boys and a few grown up people, who have on some occasions made the place hideous with their yells and other boisterous demonstrations. The proprietors of the hall had waited patiently, hoping for a change for the better, but finally concluded that it was a forlorn hope, they determined to put a stop to it. We are glad that they have been at least measurably successful.

County Taxes.
We are indebted to John A. Lee, county clerk, for the following statement of taxes collected in Chariton county for the year 1883. The table is given by townships:

Bee Branch	$1,373 20
Brunswick	1,847 73
Bowling Green	5,114 02
Clark	2,925 91
Cunningham	2,774 93
Chariton	1,400 81
Cockrell	7,810 67
Keytesville	No collection
Mendon	2,153 53
Muscle Fork	1,614 29
Salt Creek	2,070 78
Salisbury	10,008 76
Triplet	3,476 16
Wayland	2,668 44
Yellow Creek	2,843 19

[The collections for November, 1883, not complete for Yellow Creek township.]

Of the amounts collected as above stated, the sum of $1,784 has been collected on account of dog tax, which is applied to the payment of claims for losses of sheep killed by dogs prior to March 1, 1884, the surplus remaining in the hands of the township trustee after that date to be paid to the county treasurer, and placed to the credit of the school fund.

We learn through the Hannibal Herald that our esteemed countryman, H. L. Gaines, had an appointment at Huntsville last Saturday to address the farmers of Randolph county on the subject of "Tobacco Culture."

Mr. Gaines represents the Pepper Tobacco Warehouse Company of St. Louis. They have a very large establishment there, and because of the falling off in the quantity of tobacco raised for a few years past are becoming somewhat uneasy in regard to their business in the future. Mr. Gaines is, no doubt, endeavoring to show the farmers that it is to their interest to raise tobacco, and in order to make such showing he has, no doubt, looked into the matter sufficiently to give good advice on that subject. I am satisfied he would not advise the farmers to plant tobacco when the remuneration therefor is not sufficient to pay the cost of producing, to say nothing of the wear and tear of the land, as was the case a few years since. We then advised farmers to quit tobacco entirely until they could raise a quality for which they could get from eight to ten cents per pound—a less price does not pay but little.
Many did quit; and the result is good tobacco is bringing remunerative prices.

The cigar factory started in Brunswick last May by Miller & Jennings, is represented as doing a good business. While in Brunswick last week we learned that they have already sold 300,000 cigars, and have orders for 40,000 more. They employ seventeen hands, and pay out $250 to $300 each week—most of which, no doubt, is paid to business men in Brunswick, which, but for the factory, would have been expended elsewhere. We congratulate our neighboring city because this enterprise is located there. We do not covet their cigar factory, but we would like to arouse the citizens of Keytesville to the importance of securing an enterprise here for the manufacture of plug tobacco. We can see no good reason why such an institution would not pay.
Much of our land is well adapted to raising a good article for fillers, while a reasonable portion of it will make a fair grade of wrappers, and if our people, who will persist in raising tobacco, were sure of a market at home, we believe they would at once prepare themselves to raise the kind desirable for manufacturing purposes. At present we merely call attention to this matter, hoping that others may think of it, and at no distant day give it the attention its importance demands.

An Editor's Tribute.
Theron P. Keator, editor of the Ft.
Wayne (Ind.) Gazette, writes: "For the past five years I have always used Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs of the most severe character, as well as for those of a milder type. It never fails to effect a speedy cure.
My friends to whom I have recommended it speak of it in the same high terms. Having been cured by it of every cough I have had for five years, I consider it the only reliable cure for coughs, colds, &c." Call at W. C. Gaston & Co.'s drug store and get a free trial bottle.

Why they Call Him "Old Man."
"Yes, that's badly so," said Jenkins, "my hair is turning gray and falling out before its time. Use something? I would, but most hair restorers are dangerous." "True," answered his friend, "but Parker's Hair Balsam is as harmless as it is effective. I've tried it and know.
Give the Balsam a show and the boys will soon stop calling you 'Old Man Jenkins.'" It never fails to restore the original color to gray or "died" hair. Richly perfumed, an elegant dressing. Try

Mr. George V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used now much improved that she is able now to do her own work." Electric bitters will do all that is claimed for
